Disneytravelagents.com Online

Two versions of the confirmation are emailed immediately after a new reservation is booked online:

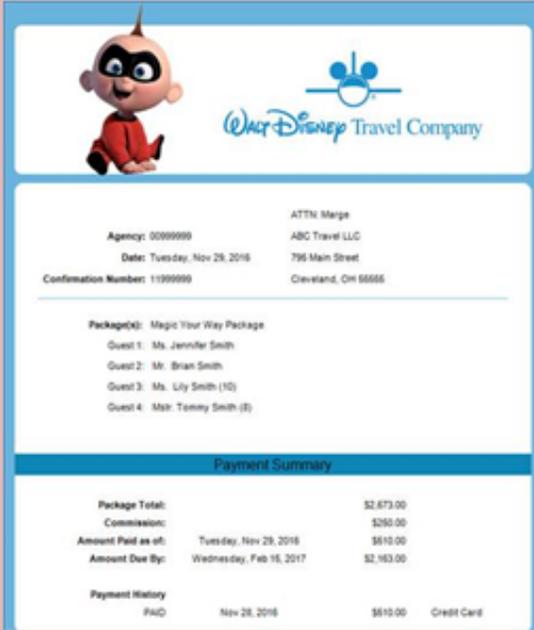

- Travel Agent version – includes commission details
- Guest version – does not include commission details

When an online transaction includes only a payment, two versions of the invoice are emailed the day after:

- Travel Agent version – includes commission details
- NEW Guest version – does not include commission details

The invoice includes a transactional history of payments, but does not include additional details, including arrival/departure date and resort name.
