Do you cringe when an executive boardroom becomes a bored room of executives?

Send them to Sonoma.

Located within Disney's legendary California Grill atop the 15th floor of the stylish Disney's Contemporary Resort, the private Sonoma Room is the antidote to boring boardroom meetings. In this intimate dining area your group can escape from the demands of work and dine together as friends, sharing the bounty of a table filled with the finest market fresh fruits, meats, vegetables, and wines from the fertile fields of California.

The beauty of the room's interior is matched by vistas of the natural world seen through broad windows to the west. From their table, your Guests will enjoy expansive views of spring-fed Bay Lake, lush Discovery Island and, on the far shore, Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort & Campground.

Soon, dinner is served. Created by the award-winning culinary team of the California Grill, each course of the meal is served in refined style by artfully trained servers. Together, the service, the sights, and the crisp and clean table services enhance the taste of the fusion cuisine. Add to this scene entertainment you've selected from Disney's vast pool of talent and you've created a superlative evening that can be found nowhere else on earth.

All in all, the event has proven itself to be classy, smart, and sophisticated.

Just like your skills as a meeting planner.
